EMERGING PHILANTHROPISTS PROGRAM
CLASS OF 2017

Deadline: January 6, 2017

TFEC and HYP are partnering for the 3rd year to provide an opportunity for emerging leaders in the Harrisburg community to become actively engaged with the power of philanthropy through the Emerging Philanthropists program (EPP). EPP seeks to engage Harrisburg's emerging business and community leaders with the great possibilities that lie within philanthropic endeavors in Harrisburg. What does it mean to be philanthropic? How do I understand the needs of our community? What can I do to make an impact? EPP provides resources and educational opportunities for Harrisburg's developing leaders who wish to be actively engaged in giving back to their community.

Essay Questions

Please respond to the following essay questions. The responses should be at least 250 words. Failure to answer the questions will result in the applicant receiving no further consideration.

Describe significant past or current community service experiences and explain how such experiences qualify you to secure a position in the Emerging Philanthropists Program. How will you make a difference in your community as a result of the program?

EXPECTATIONS

Attendance

This new leadership program includes approximately 25-40 hours of session time. To complete the program, a participant is expected to attend all sessions. The program includes 10 evening sessions that are 2.5 hours each. Additional sessions might include site visits to nonprofit organizations in the community and other opportunities as they arise. Attendance at each of the monthly sessions is required. There will be minimal additional out-of-session time required for program completion.

Commitment

By submitting this application, I understand and affirm that the purpose of the Emerging Philanthropists Program is to increase my awareness and understanding about community philanthropy while learning the principles and practices of leadership. If selected, I will devote the time and efforts necessary to complete the program. I will participate fully as an actively engaged member of the 2017 class of the Emerging Philanthropists Program. I will remain involved in the program after my graduation, be it by mentoring the next Class, speaking to the new classes, attending graduation events, etc. The Classes of 2014, 2015 and 2016 along with leadership of HYP and TFEC decided to sustain this program into the future through the establishment of the Emerging Philanthropists endowment fund. I understand that I will be required to make a financial contribution as part of the Class of 2017 gift to the Emerging Philanthropists Fund.
